The study programme along with the number of ECTS credits, assigned to each course unit, make Appendix C of this information package

II A.6 Final examination

First cycle studies (Bachelor's degree) are completed with the thesis defence and the final exam. A form of this exam is defined in the 13th chapter of the Statutes of the Academy. Below, a suitable extract from the document is presented.

The extract from the Statutes of the Academy:

13. The thesis and the final exam

§ 32.

- Conditions necessary to graduate from the Academy are: to submit the thesis and to pass the final exam (bachelor's or master's degree). The duty to meet these requirements is treated as part of the final year study programme.
 - Each student submits the thesis not later than till the 10th May in the last semester of studies.
3. Rector or vice rector under the application of a thesis promoter or a student are able to shift the date of the thesis submission in the following cases:
- student's long illness confirmed by a suitable certificate of medical service;
 - the lack of possibility to prepare the thesis in the obligatory time because of justified reasons which do not depend on the student (i.e., the lack of necessary literature)
4. The submission date of the thesis in cases described in paragraph 3 may be shifted to not longer than 3 months since the date defined in paragraph 2.
5. The thesis means the written bachelor's degree or master's degree papers. Despite the written paper, each student submits the thesis in the electronic version.

§ 33.

1. Rector appoints a promoter who, in the agreement with the student, sets the subject of the thesis in the scope of the major chosen by the student.
2. The student prepares the final paper under the direction of a promoter. The promoter must be an academic teacher with a doctor's degree at least.
3. Under the application of the student, rector is able to change the promoter.

4. In case of the promoter's longer absence which could influence the delay of the thesis submission, rector or vice rector are obliged to allot the person who will take the responsibility of managing the final paper.
5. The change of the promoter during the last 6 months before the graduation, may become the basis of the prolongation of the thesis submission date.
6. The thesis may be prepared by more than one student as far as there is some possibility to distinguish parts prepared by individual students, and on this basis estimate the workload and factual value of the thesis.
7. A paper written within the confines of the students scientific organization may be considered as a thesis.
8. The subject of the thesis should be set not later than before the beginning of the last semester of the seminar. The following factors are taken into consideration while setting the subject of the paper:
 - 1) course and major
 - 2) student's interests
 - 3) real possibilities of preparing the paper by the student.

§ 34.

1. The review of the final paper is made by the promoter and the reviewer.
2. If one review is unsatisfactory, the decision of the student's admission to the final exam is taken by rector after the discussion with the second reviewer.
3. The final mark of the thesis forms arithmetical mean of all the marks put out by persons described in paragraph 1, according to the scale given in § 20, paragraph 1 of this statutes.

§ 35.

1. Decisions concerning the admission to the final exam belong to rector after meeting the following obligations by the student:
 - 1) obtaining all needed credits, including training periods and passing all exams stated in the syllabus;

- 2) meeting all obligations towards the Academy, in particular: no delays in fees, all credits in the student's book, periodical card of student's achievements and settling accounts with the library;
 - 3) submission of an application in the Rector's office concerning the admission to the final paper defence along with three copies of the thesis, including one in the electronic version.
2. An application for the admission to the final examination along with the thesis should be submitted in the rector's office, at least 14 days before the date of the exam.
 3. The final examination should take place not later than 3 months after the thesis submission.
 4. The final examination takes place in front of the commission that is appointed by rector or vice – rector. The commission consists of at least three persons, including the chairman, the promoter and the reviewer. The chairman of the commission must be the academic teacher with a doctor's degree at least.
 5. If the final paper was written in a particular working place or the subject of the paper was precisely connected with the needs of the working place, a representative of this working place may be assigned a member of the commission by rector or vice rector.
 6. The final examination is an oral exam.
 7. The student is allowed to take the final examination after having submitted the student's identity card or another document confirming his/her identity in the rector's office.
 8. The final examination starts with the presentation of the thesis by the student. After the discussion on the paper, the student answers at least three questions. Answers should prove student's knowledge in the range of a chosen major and subjects connected with his/her final paper in particular, as well as foreign languages.
 9. After the final examination, the note is stated out according to the scale defined in the § 20, paragraph 1.
 10. The mark of the final exam forms arithmetical mean of all grades obtained during the exam. The mark of the final exam is unsatisfactory if more than one student's answer was unsatisfactory.

11. After the final examination, the commission sets the final result of the studies which will be written in the certificate. The final result of the studies consists of: $\frac{1}{2}$ of average marks in exams and credits obtained during studies, $\frac{1}{4}$ of the thesis mark and $\frac{1}{4}$ of the final exam mark.

1. In case of obtaining unsatisfactory grade during the examination or in case of unexcused absence at the examination, rector upon the application of a student appoints another, ultimate date of the exam.
2. The next examination cannot take place earlier than one month and later than three months after the first exam.
3. In case of the final examination failure in the additional time limit, rector under the application of a student allows the student to repeat the last year of studies or strikes his/her name off a students' list.

§ 37.

1. The student graduates from the Academy after passing the final examination with at least a satisfactory grade.
2. In the diploma the final result is written. The result is equalized to the full mark according to the rule:
 - to 3,50 – satisfactory
 - from 3,50 to 4,50 – good
 - from 4,51 – very good
3. The equalization to the full mark concerns the diploma inscription only. In all other certificates the real result of the studies is specified, calculated as it was written in the § 20, paragraph 5.
4. The final examination board is able to improve the grade which is described in paragraph 2, if the student got very good final exam and final paper grades and during the last two years of studies he/she achieved the average exam grade 4,0 at least.
5. The final examination board is able to reduce the grade defined in paragraph 2, if arithmetical mean of all grades in the student's book does not exceed 3,25 or in case of obtaining one unsatisfactory grade for the question.

6. A minutes is made after the diploma examination that covers: members of the final examination board, questions asked, answers marks, the final grade of the exam and the final paper, and the general result of studies.
7. The graduate has the right to keep the student's book.

II A.7 Evaluation and examination rules

The list of examinations completing each semester are presented in diagrams presented in Appendix C to this information package.

The method of evaluation and final grade components are defined in chapter 5 of the Academy regulations which are presented below.

The extract from the Academy Regulations

5.Exams and credits

1. To be allowed to take the exam you have to get credits in particular classes unless rules of getting credits in the subject provide otherwise.
2. Credits in subjects covered or not covered by the examination are granted by a person who conducts classes on the basis of the student's attendance and class participation or written and oral tests.
3. The completion of the subject covered by the exam, takes place not later than during the final classes in the year or semester. The completion of classes which are not covered by the exam may take place till the end of term. If the student does not get the credit in the subject covered by the examination before the examination time limit, he/she loses the right to take the examination in the first time limit.
4. Students take examinations in the end of terms. The examiner may appoint examination time limits before the end of terms under the application of a student with the consent of vice rector.
5. Students may take examinations in two time limits: the first one – in the end of term and the other one – during the repeat end-of-term exams. The repeat examination time limit should take place not earlier than 7 days after the first exam.
6. Time limits and places of examinations are determined by the examiner who informs vice rector about it at least 14 days before the beginning of the end-of-term exams. If it is not possible to determine the time limit, the decision is taken by vice rector upon the application of a person concerned.

7. The examination is carried out by the person who conducts classes in a particular subject or if it is not possible by another academic teacher appointed by vice rector.
8. The examination may be written or oral. A written exam may be a test or some practical form. It may also be combined if it is needed by the specific character of the subject. The form of the examination, its scope and the list of source materials and books necessary to prepare for the exam should be delivered to students by the teacher just at the beginning of classes.
9. The student who takes the exam should have the student' book and the periodical card of student's achievements with credits in classes being part of the subject.
10. Disabled students can apply for the adjustment of the examinations and credits forms and time limits to their needs, resulting from the kind of disability.

1. If a student does not take the exam in the time limit without any excuse, he/she gets unsatisfactory grade. The examination taken after the time limit is regarded as a repeat examination.
2. The student is obliged to submit a written excuse for the absence during the examination not later than 7 days after the exam. The decision concerning the excuse is immediately taken by vice rector.
3. In case of the excused absence during the exam, the student keeps the right to take the exam on another day appointed by the examiner provided that he/she reports to the examiner immediately after the cause of the absence passes. The examination is then considered the first time limit exam.
4. The student does not lose the right to take the exam in the first time limit if the examination did not take place in the previous time limit because of the examiner's absence. Another time limit cannot clash with time limits of other end-of term exams .
5. If the student gets unsatisfactory grade during the exam, he/she has the right to repeat the exam in every subject in the semester.
6. Regulations of paragraphs 1-5 are also applied to credits.

§ 15.

1. The completion period is a semester or a year depending on the major. The decision in the matter is taken by rector.
2. The completion of the academic year should be done till the 30th September.
3. The completion of the semester and the academic year takes place after all exams have been taken and credits in all subjects got.
4. Examinations and credits are registered in the student's book, periodical card of student's achievements and the examination report.
5. Dates of submission student's books and periodical cards of student's achievements to complete the semester or the academic year are determined by vice rector.
6. Rector confirms the completion of the semester or the academic year signing the student's book.

1. The student is obliged to do professional training in the scope described both in the syllabus and teaching programme.
2. Dates of training are determined by vice rector and delivered to students.
3. The Academy makes it possible to do professional training in Poland on the basis of contracts signed with working places.
4. A decision on student's foreign training is taken by rector under the application of the training coordinator and the qualifying committee.
5. The student, who got a good grade (4,0) in the language of the country she/he plans to do training, has the right to go in the first place.
6. The student applying for foreign training is obliged to take all compulsory exams in a semester (academic year).
7. The foreign training programme is approved by the training coordinator.
8. Rector may consent to training in the working place chosen by the student if the training character is compatible with the studied major.
9. National training may be done during the academic year. In this case its duration must not exceed 4 weeks. While on training the student is released from classes.

10. On the basis of a certificate confirming that training was done by the student and the report, rector recognizes training. The training completion is confirmed by signing the student's book.
11. Rector is allowed to release the student from obligatory training on terms defined by the scientific and teaching council.
12. Student's participation in works of the scientific camp may be the basis for the recognition of professional training fully or partially. A decision in the matter is taken by rector.
13. If the student does not complete training stipulated in the study schedule, rector under the application of the student may allow to do training next academic year or strike him/her off the students' list.

1. Within seven days from the date of the exam or completion the subject, the student who reports justified remarks concerning the impartiality of the form, mode or course of the exam or completion the subject, is allowed to apply for taking the exam in the presence of a commission. The exam in the presence of a commission should take place not later than 14 days from the date of the application submission.
2. Rector is allowed to order the exam in the presence of a commission on his own initiative or under the application of the examiner.
3. The examination board consists of three persons: rector or vice rector as a chairman and two academic teachers connected with the subject of the exam or a related one.
4. Under the application of the student a representative of the students' senate or a tutor may become observers during the exam in the presence of a commission.
5. The exam in the presence of a commission is an oral exam. In some particular justified cases, rector is allowed to consent to a written exam under the application of the student.
6. The result of the exam is decided by the majority of votes. In case of equal votes, the decision belongs to the chairman. The grade in the exam is the final one.
7. After the exam a report is written which, especially in case of the unsatisfactory grade, should include its justification.

1. In relation to the student who did not complete the semester or the academic year, rector takes a decision on:
 1. conditional registration for the next semester or academic year
 2. permission to repeat the semester or academic year
 3. striking off the students' list
2. A decision in cases defined in paragraph 1, points 1-2 is taken by rector under the application of the student.

II A.8 ECTS faculty/departmental coordinator

It does not concern since the Academy of Hotel Management and Catering Industry is a college without separate faculties.

II (B) Description of individual course units

A description of individual course units (ECTS cards / syllabuses) is included in Appendix C to this information package.

III General information for students

III.1 Cost of living

Buying textbooks, a monthly ticket for city transport, insurance, accommodation, money on food and clothes are not easy tasks for students who begin their education. The necessary minimum which allows to satisfy all needs stated above, without a tuition fee, is something about 700 PLN per month. An important element of total costs of living is a tuition fee. The Academy offers the scholarship and fellowship. The tuition fee depends on the mode of studies, according to conditions included in the signed contract, and can be payable on a one-off basis or by monthly installments.

The amount of other charges that may influence student's costs of living (fees for retake examinations and exams in the presence of a commission, charges for the precipitation or prolongation of the end-of term exams) are defined by rector's regulations and council resolutions.

III 2. Accommodation

Our Academy does not have a hostel. Students of the Academy of Hotel Management and Catering Industry rent flats, partly at the Warszawskie housing estate where the Academy is located. Costs of a flat are about 300 PLN per month and vary depending on the standard. In some cases, you have to add bill charges to the basic price.

There is a possibility to live in hostels which belong to other Poznań colleges, however vacancies are not always available there.

III 3 Meals

The Academy of Hotel Management and Catering Industry has its own restaurant with a professional kitchen. In the movie-themed „Beverly Hills” restaurant and winter garden in the lunch time and during breaks in classes, students and teachers may meet and discuss.

Average price:

Dinner – 10 PLN.

Breakfast – 5 PLN

Coffee – 3,50 PLN

Sandwich – 2,50-3,50 PLN

Refreshing drink – 2 PLN

III 4 Medical facilities

According to the regulations, students are subject to compulsory health insurance. If the student has a contract of employment, the insurance is paid by the employer, but if the student has his/her own firm, he/she is obliged to pay the insurance himself/herself. The situation looks different if the student does not have his own firm or does not have the contract of employment and he/she is less than 26 years old. In this case, his parents are obliged to pay the insurance for him. If the student is more than 26 years old or he/she is not obliged to pay the insurance because of other reasons, the Academy will pay the insurance for him/her. It may be done after his/her matriculation and submission the statement of not being obliged to pay the insurance from some other reasons. It concerns all types of schools and modes of studies (i.e. private colleges, extramural studies, etc.).

Students from the European Union may use medical care on the same terms as Polish citizens. To prove the insurance, students are obliged to show the E 11 form, the European Health Insurance Card or a substitute certificate. On the basis of these documents they may use medical services but only the ones who signed contracts with the National Medical Fund. A decision on the E11 form duration is taken in the Insurance Center which gives the form.

Students who begin studying in Poland and come from countries which are not members of the EU, like Ukraine, may sign the contract with a director of the regional National Medical Fund, concerning the Free Will Health Insurance. To sign the contract, documents from the college are necessary. The monthly fee of the insurance for students is 35,70 PLN.

III 5 Facilities for special needs students (i.e. disabled students)

Disabled people, just like all candidates, are obliged to pass the qualification procedure according to the chosen major. The Academy provides disabled people with specific forms of the qualification interview, however there is no special treatment of disabled people.

For candidates who cannot hear properly or deaf ones, those who cannot take oral exams, there is a possibility to take written exams or to use the sign language interpreter.

III.6 Insurance

According to legal regulations, all students are obliged to pay health insurance in the National Health Fund. Moreover, all students may insure themselves in the event of death or unexpected events in Rogal Poland.

III.7 Financial support for students

In the Academy of Hotel Management and Catering Industry there are following types of grants:

SCHOLARSHIP:

from the average grade of 4,8

An application along with a certificate on the average grade should be submitted.

SOCIAL GRANTS:

- net income per person in the family must not be bigger than 550 PLN

An application along with a certificate from the Tax Office on salaries in 2006 should be submitted

III 9 Study facilities

The library of the Academy of Hotel Management and Catering Industry was founded in 1993 and was a storeroom type library with a usable floor area of 65 square metres. Since 2008 it has been located in the new building of the Academy – “A” building on the first floor. Its usable floor area is much bigger, i.e. 347,5 square metres. It is a module library without divisions typical of storeroom libraries with the access to the majority of books, except for special collections (maps, audio and video cassettes, CDs, and diploma works).

The library consists of the following rooms: a general reading room for 30 seats, a computer room with the access to the Internet for 16 seats and the biggest room with a collection of books on bookshelves put in 12 rows in an alphabetical order according to fields of science as well as a lending library at the counter.

The library of the Academy of Hotel Management and Catering Industry collects books connected with catering industry and nutrition, hotel management, tourism, recreation and others. What is more, the library has publications concerning agrotourism, ecology, economy, philosophy, finance, geography, marketing, law, sociology, psychology, statistics, management, history and art. The library also collects general publications: dictionaries, encyclopedia, lexicons, guidebooks and atlases. At present the library collects over 15000 books, over 700 inventory units of special collections and 114 titles of professional magazines.

The collection of books is accessible to students, lecturers, the Academy workers and private people.

Since 1999 library users have been served by a computer programme, called “SOWA”. Library employees render services in bibliography, prepare various types of specifications and indexes, advise in suitable professional reading, render Xerox and printing services, give the staff access to maps, charts, audiovisual aids, projectors, laptops.

The library cooperates with other institutions and colleges in the scope of publication exchange – with 19 domestic libraries, including two on the grounds of agreements, ie. the library of the Academy of Hotel Management and Tourism in Częstochowa and the College in Jasło as well as five domestic wholesalers, purchasing and selling own scientific publications.

Library rooms are spacious and they make the reader's contact with a book easy and quick. They also enable fast service and access to all services, including those for disabled people.

Since the 1996 the Academy of Hotel Management and Catering Industry in Poznań has possessed its own modern 3-storey building with a usable floor area of 5300 square meters.

In the October 2006, a third floor was given back for using with the high – tech equipped 6 classrooms and 360 total number of places. The area of the Academy gets bigger of 760 square meters.

On the ground floor of the building the administration office of the Academy can be found. On the first and second floors there are seminar rooms and classrooms, lectures halls, computer rooms and the assembly hall.

All the rooms are equipped with the modern audio-visual facilities and teaching resources. In the basement of the Academy there is an Internet reading room in which students can find necessary information and use electronic mail.

Library with a general reading room offers a large assortment of periodicals connected with tourism, catering industry, hotel management and many other subjects connected with the Academy profile.

Due to the popularity of the physical education facilities, the School Authorities built a fitness room equipped with modern facilities.

Apart from its own facilities, the Academy rents municipal sport rooms, such as gyms, swimming pools and tennis courts. Students may also use the nautical base with qualified personnel that conduct courses for nautical certificates.

All the activities regarding physical education and qualified tourist camps are delivered by professionals from the recreational sport work-center.

Young people can use a movie-themed restaurant with a professional kitchen where students of the Hotel Management and Catering Industry major learn to prepare dishes and serve customers. Next to the restaurant there is a Winter Garden provided for rest and integrative students` meetings. Young people can read newspapers here, watch television or listen the music.

On the ground floor of the Academy you can find a shop with scripts and the latest scientific works as well as a Xerox machine.

At present the extension of the building is still provided. Newly built part of the building with the total area of 1500 square meters, is equipped with lifts and prepared for disabled students, just to let them realize their own dreams studying in our Academy. In newly built part of the school, a library, lecture halls and the administration offices are located. The expected time of finishing the investment was settled for October 2008.

III 10. Practical information for mobile students

Poznań is one of the most important education centers in Poland because of numerous colleges and the high quality of the scientific staff. After Warsaw, Cracow and Wrocław, Poznań takes the fourth place in Poland with regard to the number of students and the third place (along with Cracow) with regard to the number of colleges.

Statistics looks much better with regard to the number of students for 1000 citizens. In this category Poznań has been the national leader for 10 years, preceding such famous academic centers like Warsaw, Cracow or Wrocław. Every 15th student in Poland studies in Poznań. In 25 colleges (including 8 public colleges) more than 130 thousand people are students.

Useful information on Poznań for students from other countries and other Polish cities may be found at the following websites:

III.12 Internships

Training in Poland

Every student of the Academy of Hotel Management and Catering Industry is obliged to have professional training in Poland which is the basis for having training outside Poland.

All students are obliged to have training according to their own major. During the first year of studies training should last at least 4 weeks.

Every student should be able to prove 15 weeks of professional training according to his/her own major during 3 years of studying.

Training outside Poland

The Academy of Hotel Management and Catering Industry being fully aware of teaching the personnel for hotel management and catering industry, i.e. for a sector where employment from the very beginning depends mainly on practical skills of candidates and the number of their training days, takes care of the continuous broadening of its offer – national and foreign training.

The Academy cooperates with famous hotels and restaurants in Great Britain, Ireland, Denmark, France, Greece, Spain, USA and Cyprus, constantly trying to reach new contacts and eliminate those which do not meet students' expectations.

Employees of the Training Department in the Academy carefully read and archive information enclosed in questionnaires of students who have finished their training and are obliged to fulfill the questionnaire to get the training credit.

To apply for internships each student of the Academy of Hotel Management and Catering Industry should:

- complete the first semester;
- have a good command of the language spoken in the country he/she intends to go;
- do one-month training in Poland, and in case of applying for training in Ireland or Great Britain - training outside Poland;
- submit all needed documents, i.e. CV and the foreign training card (which is an official consent of the Academy to leave abroad), as well as the application for releasing from classes while training (in the office of vice rector, Anna Woźniak)
- succeeded in the qualification interview and signed the contract.

All students who want to do training outside Poland are obliged to submit their CV both in the electronic and paper versions in the Training Department of the Academy. The model form of the CV is available at the website of the Academy: documents to download link. In the Objective point you should write:

- country of destination
- date of starting training
- duration
- applied position

CV should be fulfilled correctly because all documents which are incomplete or include mistakes will not be accepted. Documents which in Personal part will be a copy of the model form available at the website, will not be accepted as well.

The Training Department is able to advise and help students. They organize trainings and monitor them, they, however, are not able to prepare documents for students who are obliged to do it properly themselves.

Formalities necessary to apply for internships have been limited to the minimum. Thus the Academy will obey the rule consistently.

- Greece

Internships in Greece take place in the summer season, i.e. from April to November. Every hotel the Academy cooperates with presents its offer where dates and the duration of internships are marked. Some hotels admit students for a period of 4 – 5 months in the middle of the season, other hotels – one group for 3 months at the beginning of the season and another one in the next part of the season.

Every hotel informs us before the season starts what positions it is offering. Most often students work in the service in restaurants and hotel bars, in the kitchen, in the reception desk and as chambermaids. Everyone can choose a position that suits him/her best depending on their linguistic skills (in Greece a command of English is obligatory, sometimes German is necessary, too), qualifications, experience and preferences. There are hotels that engage one student per season but there are also such hotels that admit about 50 people from our Academy in the high season.

Trainees go to Greece by plane. Tickets are booked by the Academy. Trainees are obliged to pay for the flight, these costs, however, are entirely reimbursed by managers. There are also hotels which offer to pay for the students' tickets in advance.

While training in Greece students are provided with accommodation, food and about 300 euro allowance a month. Everyone receives information on the detailed conditions binding in a given hotel before a departure.

Internships in Greece provide students with professional instructions, the opportunity to polish their English and learn basic Greek, as well as learning about Greek culture. Internships in this part of Europe is a splendid opportunity to taste Mediterranean cuisine and to relish the sun and the warm sea, the opportunity every trainee eagerly takes in his/her free time.

- France

Hotels in France admitting our students are scattered all over the country. Internships are possible all year round and it lasts 3 months. There is, however, the chance to prolong the stay in some hotels. In most cases students go to the hotels on their own. They are provided with accommodation, food and an allowance of about 300 to even 1000 euros a month. Students gain experience in positions in the gastronomic divisions of the hotel, i.e. in restaurants, bars and in the kitchen. Every person applying for training in France must prove they have a command of French. The level of this knowledge is dependent on the requirements made by the hotel. Many students establish fantastic relations during their training period in France and as graduates they go there to work on long contracts. Moreover, the time spent in high-class French hotels gives an invaluable chance to learn a difficult language.

danuta@wshig.poznan.pl

- Ireland, Great Britain

Internships in Great Britain and Ireland lasts from 6 up to 12 months. The majority of offers come in the period from February to June every year, therefore students wishing to leave should apply before or at the beginning of this deadline. Students may apply for a job in the positions in service, kitchen, housekeeping and reception, obviously taking into consideration previous experience, competence and predispositions. Each student receives an initial offer including basic conditions of employment that, after analysing, he / she may accept or reject.

Many a time students ask why training in Great Britain is not shorter. Considering the fact that each student needs from one to three months to familiarize with the hotel specificity and become a standard value employee, hotel managers try to decrease the workers rotation to the highest degree. Longer training allows students to get acquainted with the hotel activity and improve their command of English. In most cases students receive accommodation and full board paid in a small amount out of their wages.

Having finished training, students receive references and often offers of a full-time job after graduation. Due to the fact that hotels belong to the most renowned, popular and respected hotel chains, references obtained in those hotels make it easier for our graduates to get a better job.

Hotels the Academy cooperates with usually admit one or two students, but there are, however, some bigger units with positions for about 10 people. Nevertheless, we think that a trip in a smaller group gives students many more possibilities to be realized and to check their abilities, besides, it is much more useful as regards their command of English.

Professional training in Great Britain and Ireland has one more unquestionable advantage, namely it allows students to collect sufficient money to finance their own education or cover other essential expenses, thus giving them a feeling of independence and responsibility for their own choices. We repeatedly hear from the parents of students coming back from training that their children changed radically and grew up very fast. The office workers notice with pleasure how carefree teenagers become enterprising and mature young people with a vision of their own future.

Training outside Poland for students of the Academy of Hotel Management and Catering Industry is not obligatory but the profits it brings are the reason why there are so few students who voluntarily give up the chance of participating in training.

III.13. Extramural and leisure activities

The teaching programme, carried out in the Academy of Hotel Management and Catering Industry in Poznań, contains classes in physical education which, in most cases, take place in the school gym. Team games or swimming take place in municipal sports and recreation centers. It is worth noticing that there are over 800 such places in Poznań.

Our students enthusiastically use tennis and squash courts, the regatta tracks, the Malta ski slope and ice rinks. The Academy of Hotel Management and Catering Industry along with other colleges in Poznań promote sport and physical education organizing swimming courses, practicing winter sports, canoeing, rowing, fencing. They also organize trips and camps in both summer and winter.

III.14 Student associations

Student associations in the Academy of Hotel Management and Catering Industry:

The School's Student Senate ss@wshig.poznan.pl

The Academic Sports Association was established in 1908. In the period between two World Wars the Association clubs were established in all academic centers. After the Second World War new clubs were created in all colleges and universities. Just at the beginning the Association was focused on professional sportsmen, however in the late sixties the academic sport started to develop. At the end of 2001, the Association gathered 46 thousand members who were active in 249 clubs in Poland.

ACTIVITY

All the clubs conduct classes in numerous kinds of sport disciplines in almost 1000 sections. The most popular disciplines are: volleyball, basketball, table tennis, swimming. What is more, students practise such unconventional sports as: ice boating, wrestling and archery. Over 150 sections of the Association take part in national contests at the level of I and II league.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Since the period of two World Wars sportsmen of the Academic Sports Association have been achieving successes in national and international competitions. The Association is a member of the International Federation of Student Sport. Lately the greatest success has been the Championship of Poland in men's volley-ball, numerous successes of rowers, fencers, judo practitioners and athletes. In the last years, using the criteria of the participation in the Olympic Games sportsmen of the Association are about 25% of the whole Polish national representation.

The Students' Parliament of the Polish Republic

The Students' Parliament of the Polish Republic is a national representation of all Students' Senates (article 157 of the Law about the Higher Education System). On the basis of this Law, Students' Senates associate all academic circles obligatorily. They work in a great number of public and private colleges in Poland (article 156).

The Students' Parliament may co-decide about the financial support for students and about the division of donations for youth organizations functioning in colleges. The Parliament organizes cultural activities of academic circles, takes part in elections of college authorities, departments and institutes. What is more, it influences teaching programmes and a course of education. It may also promote students and graduates on the working market and deals with legal consultancy.
